

Dear Sir:

How can anyone in government be serious about approving cell phone use aboard our nation's airliners? What with terrorism, rude conduct with passengers (cheap fares), and a place to find "quietness" aboard an aircraft, I cannot believe that any legislator would EVEN CONSIDER approving such an outrageous consideration to other fellow passengers!! Think about it!! DON'T APPROVE!!